

OFICINA DE CONGRESOS Y CONVENCIONES
DE LA CIUDAD DE MÉXICO

MR. DAVID COCKROFT
GENERAL SECRETARY
INTERNATIONAL TRANSPORT
WORKERS' FEDERATION
PRESENT

October 19th, 2009.

Dear Mr. Cockroft:

It is a great pleasure for the Government of Mexico City to be the host of the 42th Congress of the ITF to be hold in August 2010.

The Ministry of Tourism of Mexico City, through our channel the Mexico City's Congress and Conventions Office, has been conducting a series of support activities for the realization of your congress; these activities are certainly aimed to make the delegates' and participants' stay in our city a pleasant and efficient one.

The office under my charge will keep on executing these labors of support such as the necessary procedures to establish an information stand in the airport to assist all the participants upon their arrival to Mexico City, arrangements with Migration and Customs authorities as well as with Traffic and Security authorities and every other support that would be necessary for the successful fulfilling of the 42th Congress of the ITF.

I take this opportunity to comment that, in addition to your professional activities, yourself, your delegates and all of the participants will also have the opportunity to enjoy our folklore, our popular art, our world famous cuisine and, especially, the warmth and professionalism of our people. You will enjoy as well our historical monuments and our 9 archeological sites, 4 of which have been declared Humanity's Heritage by the UNESCO.

Please rest assure that the congress will be an utter success and that Mexico City will be receiving you with open arms.

Receive best regards,

Carlos Mackinlay G.
Executive Director
